Leavenworth Man Wounded by 18 Year Old Girl.

BECAUSE HE ABUSED HER

Girl Warned Him Not to Call Her Names.

Leavenworth, Kan., Dec. 12.-Miss Mabel Coon yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock shot her step-father, Charles Hill, because he abused her and her mother The 18-year-old girl fired three times at arm between the elbow and the shoulder The shooting occurred at the home of the

On August 5, Mrs. Coons married Chas Hill in Kansas City. The woman and the girl both say that since the marriage Hill has been intoxicated nearly all the time He abused his wife and step-daughter so frequently that Miss Coons finally went to a member of the police force and complained. This man, a city detective, told her to get a gun and shoot Hill the next ime he abused her.

Yesterday afternoon Hill went home ntoxicated. The girl says he at once began calling her vile names. She told him if he applied a certain vile epithet to her again she would shoot him. He at once used it again and the girl shot at him three times. He was struck in the arm and a bad flesh wound inflicted. Miss Coon went to Chief Cranston and gave herself up. After hearing her story the chief allowed the girl to goher way. it is probable Hill will be arrested on a harge of slander.

Hill came down town and a reporter naw him when he was going to a physi cian. The reporter had been told of the occurence a half minute before and he pproached Hill and asked about the affair.
